

Which circles are for you?

SOCIAL ACTION CIRCLES

'Stay Weird' Patch Party	Sat. 3/7/26	10a-1p
Fabric Banners	Sat. 8/10/26	10a-1p

These two circle gatherings are affirming crafting dates & spaces for makers to create and collaborate on social action/craftivism (craft + activism).

Ideal gatherings for makers who want to create visual art celebrating diversity and personal/community activism. Co-creating for a cause is a timeless form of resistance against systemic oppression and unjust authoritarianism. And it's a darn good way to use our hands and hearts versus social media doom-scrolling.

ARTISTIC ENDEAVORS CIRCLES

World Collage Day	Sat. 5/9/26	10a-1p
Retro Case Makeovers	Sat. 9/5/26	10a-2p
Spellbound Books	Sat. 10/17/26	10a-1:30p

These three circle gatherings are themed, have mostly 'shop at home' supply lists and are communal in nature. They are invitations to bring your artsy stash and inherent talent to co-create alongside other makers who enjoy mixed media, collage, telling stories, repurposing, and zero waste art. I am hosting, not teaching. These are community gatherings with a vibe of sharing encouraging inspiration and our generous skills.

Join me in celebrating year #11 at Studio 118 as we root into circular co-creation and craftivism. We'll detach from traditional hierarchical words/actions (like teacher/student) and make alongside kindred hearts who are passionate about collaboration, creative expression, sustainability and social justice.

Let's share the "good medicine" of creativity as a love language. You're already talented and gifted - join me to create and connect in a circle of affirming community. Most supplies for each circle are items likely use typical craft/art items, and are found at home or thrifted. The goal is to use ordinary items for extraordinary results.
